

Best Practices for Managing Student Information

1. Never use public access computers to access OASES and complete assessments. Please use only your personal work computer to access or download students' submissions.
2. Delete any student submissions that you have downloaded.
3. Do not email or share students' submissions.
4. Do not print student submissions, if you absolutely must print, be sure to shred the copies after assessments are completed.